Specialist Window Cleaning London and the South East

RSS expertise in specialist window cleaning can take care of even the hardest to reach glass.

The company has grown from the window cleaning industry with our experience going back decades, covering everything from the very basics up to highly specialist window cleaning services accessing the highest and hardest to reach places on any building.

Resolute window cleaning services include:

- Specialist window cleaning
- Reach and wash
- Cradles, cherry pickers

- Working at height
- Hard to reach windows
- Canopy cleaning

The RSS highly trained, professional and friendly team can offer you a full survey and quotation and no matter how large the job they will make sure it's taken care of in the quickest possible time, to the highest possible standards.

Available as a one off window cleaning service or on a periodic contract basis, Resolute will tailor their services around their clients' needs, so no matter what your requirements for window or other cleaning services, put it in the hands of the experts at Resolute Support Services.

Marble, Granite Flooring, Carpet and Facia Cleaning

Ensure the longevity and beauty of expensive coverings and materials with our expert cleans.

Walls and floors covered in materials like marble, granite and carpets make an instant impression on your customers; when they're pristinely cleaned and cared for it achieves the great impression you hope for, leave it to get stained, chipped or worn and it says something else entirely.

Chemical cleans

Utilising specialist chemicals we can effectively remove grease, paint and other problem substances from carpets, upholstery, blinds, fabric wallpapers and silks; drying in just forty minutes it's an ideal cleaning service for our many hotel clients.

Facia exteriors

As an extension of our at-height window cleaning expertise we can also offer facia cleaning on complete building exteriors; using tools such as cherry pickers and cradles we can access any part of your building for a total makeover.

Resolute's highly experienced team make fast work of these expert cleaning services with full attention to quality standards and health and safety legislation.
